STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Sept. 10. — The Pennsylvania State College has been selected by the National Education Association as the site for the annual meeting of the organization, which will be held here in November. The meeting will be the largest ever held in the United States, with an estimated attendance of 10,000 delegates and 50,000 visitors. The college has been chosen for its location in the heart of the Pennsylvania State College campus, which is one of the largest and most beautiful in the country. The meeting will be held in the new State College Hotel, which is a modern and comfortable building.
